

DANI NOUVEAU

Songwriter / Performer / Vocal Specialist

Combine a lifetime of musical creativity, 10 years manifold performance experience, 6 years studio experience with award winning music producers and an internationally acclaimed BA Honours Degree in Creative Musicianship, Majoring in Song-writing with the UK Music Institute that brought you likes of James Bay, George Ezra, The Kooks, Kate Walsh, Tom Odell and Luke Sital Singh (to name but a few).

Since discovering that music was her life's passion at age 15, Dani has dedicated her life to honing her creative and technical song-writing and performance abilities. She has an impressive list of milestones reached for a newly launched young creative artist.

Her accomplishments to date include:

- Creative collaboration with internationally renown and respected session musicians
- Completing her 13 track album at Northwind Recording Studios, Kloof with international award winning producer Nik Fairclough, complete with horn section and cello parts recorded in Stockholm, Sweden
- Studied a Higher Diploma in Vocals at The Academy of Contemporary Music in Guildford, UK.
- Completed a BA (Hons) degree in Creative Musicianship – Majoring in Song-writing at the British and Irish Modern Music Institute. Receiving a first overall and a first for her professional project on creative collaboration.
- Filming two world-class music videos with a multi-national crew, headed up by renown director Cale Glendening (USA), and a cast of the musicians from the UK, Ireland & Sweden. (Youtube: songsbydani)
- Having three tracks from Open Spaces featured on an independent film directed by Frans Cronje (Faith Like Potatoes, Hansi)
- Completing a nationwide album launch and film premiere tour
- International Album Launch in Brighton UK.
- Having her album re-mastered for iTunes according to the specifications laid down by Apple for top quality iTunes sound integration and delivery.

- Opening for international electronic super-duo Milky Chance, singing to a crowd of thousands with local favourites The Kickstands
- Collaborating with many and various teams of highly skilled international songwriters and composers to create songs of diverse style and purpose, from Latin-influenced beach-pop to a South African jive-influenced indie-rock music to a quirky and eclectic smooth jazz, funk and soul influenced set.
- Starting her own online creative collaboration community /company, creating high quality live music videos and achieving a high quality product and high levels of cross fan network marketing for her team/clients.
- A successful self-funded and directed 6-date international multi-city independent-tour of the UK, (from South Africa) including legendary London venue, The Troubadour.
- Dani performs regularly around Durban and typically plans and executes an international professional tour every year.

As well as countless other small / private venues in South Africa and Europe, a number of better known Durban and International venues and events Dani has played and frequented include:

- The Chairman
- The Oyster Box Hotel
- The Elangeni Hotel
- The Dutch
- Splashy Fenn
- White Mountain Folk Festival
- The Durban Street Food Festival
- The Ballito Pro
- The Dimension Data Pro Am Tournament Banquet
- Music Events at Makaranga Garden Lodge
- Milky Chance and other Events at Shongweni Polo Club
- The renowned venue The Troubadour in London
- The Emporium Theatre in Brighton
- Old Mutual Music at the Lake, Durban Botanical Gardens
- Kulturschopfer Gallery, Berlin, Germany